I enjoyed and was empowered with all the lessons of this course. The take away messages are to examine my thoughts and perceptions so as to re-create my reality.

Moreover, in the process of growth, accept change and push myself to improve and serve. Most importantly, everyone can win. Finally, listen before I talk.

This was a Wonderful class. I plan on using all that I learned with my class next year. The things I value most: - to be resourcefulness

- Find your voice
- choice does matter
- Be nice to your brain
- Focus is key

This has been the most beneficial class ever!
