This was an awesome course. It made re-evaluate myself. I am an effective teacher, but now I am a super effective teacher. The glass is half full not half empty. Thank you for making me aware of my self. And to continue with my own personal and professional health.

Thank you for being the most wonderful part of my life and the biggest part of my best workshop just remember "You make the world go around".

Hope our paths cross again

This was a terrific, applicable class!
The activities we participated in were good reminders of how to teach effectively in the classroom - with students learning by teaching, working cooperatively, & using hands-on-materials.

Content - super!
Video input - great
I appreciated Maryam's personal input/stories ... & the inspiration.

This was a great workshop!

I feel as if I really learned a lot and that the instructor cared about how I was able to process the information and relate it to the classroom.

I was creatively hosted and the learning was fun!

Thank you
